

FACULTY SENATE RESOLUTION
FSR 2003-2004-11

I. RESOLUTION NAME:

Endorsement of the Practical Democracy and Civic Learning Fair.

II. STATED RESOLUTION:

The Faculty Senate thanks the Provost Don Betz and Volunteer Center Coordinate Veronica Alarcon and commends their leadership in the American Democracy Project. Specifically the Faculty Senate resolves to offer its good will and support to the Practical Democracy and Civic Learning Fair, February 24, 2004. To that end, the Faculty Senate encourages all faculty to participate in the special enhancement program where they may learn how to create syllabi and curricula that will promote thoughtful, committed, and socially responsible citizens.

III. JUSTIFICATION:

The Faculty Senate acknowledges that education is more than competency and expertise, it is a way of life that features both life-long learning and life-long civic service and ethical leadership in our democratic society.

IV. BUDGET IMPLICATIONS:

There will be no added expenses incurred if this resolution is adopted.
